Familiarisation Programme for Independent Directors

Regulation 25(7) of SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015

1. Preamble

MRC Agrotech Limited (the “Company”) recognises that Independent Directors bring an objective and independent element to the deliberations of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) and play a vital role in the governance of the Company. In order that Independent Directors are able to discharge their duties effectively, it is essential that they have a good understanding of the Company, the industry in which it operates, the business model and operations of the Company, and their own roles, rights and responsibilities.

This Familiarisation Programme (this “Programme”) has been formulated and adopted by the Board pursuant to Regulation 25(7) of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (the “Listing Regulations”) read with Schedule IV to the Companies Act, 2013 (the “Act”), which requires the Company to familiarise Independent Directors with the Company through various programmes.

2. Objective

The objective of this Programme is to:

- familiarise the Independent Directors with the Company, its promoters, its group structure, subsidiaries and the business environment in which the Company operates;
- familiarise the Independent Directors with the nature of the agriculture and agri-processing industry, and the Company’s business model, products, markets, competition, operations and internal control systems;
- familiarise the Independent Directors with their roles, rights, responsibilities, duties and liabilities in the Company; and
- build and develop, on a continuing basis, the understanding and knowledge of the Independent Directors about the Company so as to enable them to make an effective and informed contribution as members of the Board.

3. Familiarisation at the Time of Appointment (Induction)

On appointment, each Independent Director is issued a formal letter of appointment setting out in detail the terms and conditions of appointment, the duties, roles and responsibilities expected of the Director, the expected time commitment, the Company’s policies and codes applicable to Directors, and the Company’s Code of Conduct and Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading. A copy of the letter of appointment is available on the website of the Company.

The Company Secretary & Compliance Officer conducts an induction for each newly appointed Independent Director and briefs the Director on, among other things:

- the constitution of the Company, its Memorandum and Articles of Association, and the composition of the Board and its Committees;
- the group structure of the Company, its subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, if any;
- the Board processes and procedures, the matters reserved for the Board, and the schedule and conduct of Board and Committee meetings; and

- the governance framework of the Company, including the applicable statutory, regulatory and internal codes and policies.

4. Ongoing Familiarisation

The Independent Directors are, on an ongoing basis, familiarised with the following through presentations at Board and Committee meetings, interactions with the management, site visits and circulation of updates:

- the nature of the agri-business, cultivation, processing, manufacturing, trading and export operations of the Company and the geographies and markets it serves;
- the Company's business model, product portfolio (including essential oils, lemongrass, tea, seeds, nano fertilizers and guar gum), supply chain and go-to-market strategy;
- the applicable regulatory framework, including the Act, the Listing Regulations, the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and other laws relevant to the Company's operations;
- the Company's strategic plans, annual budgets, financial performance, capital expenditure, funding position and internal financial control systems;
- significant developments in the Company's business, and changes in the operating environment, economy, industry and regulatory landscape; and
- the roles, rights, responsibilities, duties and liabilities of Independent Directors under applicable law, and any material changes therein.

5. Responsibility for Implementation

The Managing Director / Whole-time Director, the Chief Financial Officer and the Company Secretary & Compliance Officer are collectively responsible for organising and implementing this Programme. The Company may, where considered appropriate, engage external experts, professionals or agencies to conduct sessions for the Independent Directors on specific subjects, including changes in law and regulation.

6. Disclosure

The details of the familiarisation programmes imparted to the Independent Directors during a financial year, including the number of programmes attended and the number of hours spent by each Independent Director in such programmes, shall be disclosed on the website of the Company, and a web-link thereto shall be provided in the Corporate Governance Report forming part of the Annual Report of the Company, in accordance with the Listing Regulations.

7. Review and Amendment

This Programme shall be reviewed periodically by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, which may recommend such amendments to the Board as it considers necessary. The Board is authorised to amend this Programme from time to time. Any subsequent amendment in the Listing Regulations or the Act shall automatically apply to this Programme and shall be deemed to be incorporated herein to the extent of any inconsistency.
