Disclosure with special reference to Analysts and Institutional Investors

The Whole-time Director dealing with analysts and institutional investors, select shareholders, research personnel and media (hereinafter referred to as Analysts) shall follow the guidelines given hereunder. No UPSI shall be disclosed / disseminated to Analysts. Only public information should be provided to the Analysts. Alternatively, the information given to the Analyst should be simultaneously made public by informing the Stock Exchanges (through CIRO) simultaneously with providing of such information. For this purpose the information must be sent to CIRO before sharing with Analysts and the information also put on the Company's website.

Transcripts and recording of proceedings

- In order to avoid misquoting or misrepresentation, the company's representative shall be present at meetings with Analysts and discussion should be recorded in writing and countersigned by CIRO on transcripts to be made.
- The transcripts / records of proceedings shall be displayed on the website of the company to ensure official confirmation and documentation of disclosures made.
- Handling of unanticipated questions: unanticipated questions should be taken on notice and a considered response given later in consultation with the Managing Director. If the answer includes UPSI, a public announcement should be made before responding, and informed to the Stock Exchanges either simultaneously or before public announcement.
- Simultaneous release of information: whenever a meeting with Analysts is organized, it shall be ensured that the company makes an announcement and information on its website simultaneously with every such meet.

Handling of UPSI on a "need to know" basis

UPSI is to be handled on a "need to know" basis, i.e. UPSI should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information. No UPSI shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. All UPSI directly received by an employee should immediately be reported to the CIRO, who in consultation with the Director or in his absence the MD shall decide whether a disclosure is necessary to Stock Exchanges and on the Company's website.

Policy for Determination of "Legitimate Purposes"

The term "legitimate purpose" shall generally include the sharing of UPSI in the ordinary course of business by an insider: within the Company and/or its subsidiaries; and with outsiders such as collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, rating agencies, investment bankers and due diligence service providers — for the purposes of carrying out an assignment for or on behalf of and/or for the benefit of the Company, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of the Regulations.

With respect to sharing of UPSI by Employees within the Company and/or its subsidiaries, "legitimate purpose" shall generally include sharing required for the performance of duties based on the role and function of the person, and pursuant to such other function as may be assigned from time to time, which shall be properly documented. Illustrative purposes include: preparing monthly / quarterly / annual financial results; preparing presentations at leadership meetings; preparing Board and Committee meeting agenda; and preparing communications to Stock

Exchanges. Sharing of UPSI for discharging any legal and regulatory compliance / obligation shall be properly documented with necessary approvals from any one Key Managerial Personnel (KMP).

With respect to sharing of UPSI by Employees with Outsiders (like Auditors, Bankers, Consultants, etc.), "legitimate purpose" shall generally include, illustratively: sharing of quarterly / annual financial results (including of a material subsidiary) with Statutory Auditors for audit or limited review; sharing with legal advisors or auditors for expert opinion / advice; sharing of business plans with a Consultancy Firm for long-term vision / annual budget; sharing with Internal Auditors for internal audit; sharing of financials / estimated profit with the income tax department for advance tax estimations; access of files containing UPSI and accounting software to IT consultants; sharing with consultants for due diligence for acquisition / merger proposals or capital restructuring; and sharing with JV partners / merchant bankers / NBFCs for JV transactions / investment / divestment — provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or bypass the prohibitions of the Regulations.

Any recipient of UPSI shall be considered “Insider”

Any person in receipt of UPSI pursuant to a "legitimate purpose" shall be considered an "insider" for purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI in compliance with these regulations.

Communication and procurement of UPSI for legitimate purposes

No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI relating to the company or its material subsidiaries, or its securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. The Insider sharing the UPSI shall ensure that the recipient has been given due notice to maintain confidentiality or has executed a confidentiality agreement, and shall record the sharing of UPSI (including person with whom shared, type of UPSI shared, when and how shared) for the purpose of maintaining an audit trail. Likewise, no person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

In case of any violation of the Policy or SEBI Regulations, the Company shall take appropriate action. In case the violation relates to leak or suspected leak of UPSI, the Company shall take appropriate action as per the Company's Policy and Procedure for Enquiry in case of Leakage of UPSI, and the same shall be updated to SEBI along with the enquiry conducted and result thereof. Action will also be taken against the Insider found to be guilty as per the directions of SEBI.

Structured Digital Database

A Structured Digital Database shall be maintained containing the names of such persons or entities, as the case may be, with whom information is shared for legitimate purposes along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorised by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Adequate and effective systems of internal controls will also be laid out to ensure the compliance of maintenance of a digital database for sharing the information for said legitimate purpose.

Amendments to the Policy

The Board of Directors can amend this Policy, as and when deemed fit. Any or all provisions of this Policy would be subject to revision / amendment in accordance with the Rules, Regulations, Notifications etc. on the subject as may
